Dear Editor,

Here is a photograph of my dog, Judy, taken when she was just a few months old. She's much older now, and much bigger, too, so we've had to buy her a new basket to sleep in. But she seems to like it just as much as her old one.

JANE PUGH, St. Albans.

How about spending some of your £1 prize-money on a juicy bone for Judy, for posing so nicely for that photo . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am very fond of National Costume dolls. I have nine of them in my collection at the moment. Most of them come from South America, and they were bought for me by my uncle. The others I've brought back from my holidays, in the United Kingdom. Here is a photo of me.

ALISON GUNTON, Great Yarmouth.

Sounds like an interesting hobby for girls . . . dolls in 'soup'ed-up National Costume . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I am writing to tell you about my budgie called Joey. He is blue with a white face and black tail. My friends didn't believe that he could talk, so I taped Joey on my tape recorder, now I play it back to them.

MARTIN LEONARD, Barnsley.

No wonder you're smiling, pal, you certainly had the last laugh on them. . . Editor

Dear Editor,

Whilst my cousin was staying with me, I told her I was going to night school with my friends . . . really I was sneaking off to go to the pictures with them. Suddenly, at 9.30 p.m. the silence in the cinema was shattered by the ringing of a bell. (It came from my handbag) So I rushed out, and found an alarm clock in my bag. On its face was stuck the message: "BE BACK BY TEN OR ELSE!" and it was signed "Clare", my cousin. Here's a zany picture of Clare and me. I'm on the right.

TRUDI MILLER, Horsham.

Wow! What a couple of jokers . . . good job you weren't watching "The Hunch Back of Notre Dame" at the cinema . . . 'The Bells!' . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about the time I went to the 'Lodchestar' in Ribchester near my home. 'The Ribble Valley' gave a charity day, and invited Ken Dodd to come and entertain. I was with my freind, whose mother was working on a stall. Suddenly, a reporter came up and asked us to get an autograph when he came in. We did this, and to our surprise, our photograph appeared in four local papers.

JAYNE HOUGH, Stonyhurst.

It all sounds very interesting, Jayne, and here's the photograph of you and your friend, with Ken Dodd signing your autograph book . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Recently a reader wrote in to tell you about her autograph book, and the autographs she'd got. Well, I've had my autograph book for just over a year now, and I've managed to get the autographs of: Hughie Green, Mick Robertson of Magpie, and the pop group Inner Sleeve. I got all these when our school choir appeared on 'Opportunity Knocks'. I've also got Kenny Ball's autograph. I would have got Tom Coyne's (he introduces 'Midlands Today') when he came to open our local fair, but unfortunately I missed him.

HELEN WITHERS, Madeley.

Ol' thingy hates signing his autograph . . . especially when it's on my pay packet . . . Ossie.

Dear Editor,

This year our school had a sponsored walk. While we were asking for people to sponsor us, my best friend, Amanda, put her dog called Trudy down on my list, sponsoring me for ½p. which meant she'd have to pay 8p. at the end of the walk. I also put my dog called Skip, and my hamster called Percy down on her list. The only trouble was, we had to pay for our pets at the end of the walk!

ANDREA BYRNE, Merseyside.

Dear Editor,

One of my hobbies is playing the soprano cornet in the Hangleton Band. My instrument is the highest in the band, and very hard to play. The Hangleton Band has been going for just over ten years, and there are three separate sections; Junior band, 'B' band, and 'A' band. I enjoy it very much.

MARGARET GRIFFIN, Hove.

Ossie plays an instrument . . . well, he's always blowing his own trumpet . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

Last Christmas I played a trick on my Mum and Dad. I went to bed at 8.30 p.m. on Christmas Eve, but I quietly crept into their bedroom and put their alarm clock two hours forward. That morning the clock said 7.00 a.m. but really it was only 5. Then my Dad said how dark it was still, so he 'phoned the speaking clock and it said 5 a.m. Good job my Dad saw the funny side of it.

DARREN MOORE, Deeside.

Good job indeed, Darren! It's a wonder he didn't give you a 'tick'ing off . . . Editor.

Dear Editor,

I have had some famous people live near me. Alfred Marks used to live in my block of flats, so did Peter Sellars and Spike Milligan. Stanley Baxter lives nearby, and my cousin is Wolf Mankowitz the playwright. I think WHOOPEE!'s a great comic and I eagerly look forward to it every week.

LISA EDELMAR, Highgate.

Dear Editor,

I would like to tell you about my hobby which is collecting match box covers. So far I have collected 743 different ones. I also collect beer mats and have 490 of those, from all over the world. I get WHOOPEE! every week and I think it's very good, especially Lolly Pop.

CHRIS FIRTH, Bradford.

Thanks for an interesting letter, Chris . . . Editor,
I think it's a great letter . . . at last I've got a fan . . . Lolly Pop.

Dear Editor,

Last year we went on holiday to Caister-on-Sea near Great Yarmouth. When we went into Great Yarmouth we saw Dickie Henderson going down one of the piers towards the theatre where he was in a show. The second time, I was lucky enough to have my autograph book with me, and I saw Peters and Lee getting out of their car. So I rushed over and got their autographs. That night we went to see a very enjoyable show starring Dick Emery.

MICHAEL ROBINSON, Ashton under Lyne.

Glad to hear you enjoyed the show, Michael . . . and if any other readers have been to see a show or play, on holiday or in the West End please write and tell me about it . . . Editor.
